

Utilities Department

The City of Martinsburg Utilities Department is a combined water and sewer utility. That provides water and sewer service to over 6,000 customers in and around Martinsburg.

The water utility consists of two separate water filtration plants. One being a 2.0 MGD ground water source with flocculation and multi media filtration. The second one being 2.5 MGD ground water source with flocculation, multi media filtration and granulated carbon filtration.

The Distribution system consisting of over 100 miles of distribution mains with four off site water storage tanks and booster pump stations.

The sanitary sewer collection and conveyance system consists of over 80 miles of collection mains and three submersible pump stations.

The wastewater treatment plant is a 3.0 MGD MBBR advanced nutrient removal facility with anaerobic digestion.